Description

An attractive oak Grandmother clock, in a late 18th Century style. It has a break-arch top hood, with turned side columns and finely fretted side panels, a long door, with richly figured oak 1/4 matched veneer panels. It has a silvered embossed dial, with a Tempus Fugit disc within the arch. The 8 day Westminster chime (Big Ben) movement has a long pendulum and chimes the 1/4s, halves and hours and strikes the hours.
